OBITUARY. Horace T. Brumley.

Horace T. Brumley, a haive of the town of Moatville, died Saturday while on his way to his home in Newark, N. J. Mr. Brumley was a son of the late Joseph Brumley and was born in Montville Center, where his father kept a store for many years. His father kept a store for many years. His father moved to Palmertown and resided in the house near the Rockland paper mill, that was destroyed by fire a few years ago. The elder Brumley kept a store in the basement of that building for quite a while. Horace T. was the youngest of the family. When he was about 15 years of age he went to Newark, where his brother John was a practicing physician, and began his career in a bank, which resulted in his becoming the head of one of the strongest financial institutions. His death removes all but one of the Montville family, his sister, Mrs. David Lindsay of Wilmington, Del., surviving him. The Newark Evening News of Saturday prints the following regarding his death:

Horace T. Brumley, president of the Howard Savings institution, and a director of several other local financial corporations, died early this morning while on his way to his home from Saranac Lake, N. Y. A despatch to this effect was received by the officials of the savings bank.

Mr. Brumley had been at Saranac Lake since March 1, trying to the savings bank.

Mr. Brumley had been at Saranac Lake since March 1, trying to trengthen a constitution weakened by a chronic disease, Last night his condition crew suddenly worse, and it was Signo and possession of mortgaged property.

Robert Palmer of Groton sues Newman M. Clark of St. Andrew's, New Brunswick, for $2,000 damages. He claims that they entered into a partnership to do a quarry business in Noank in 1908, the plaintiff owning one-third and the defendant two-thirds and the latter was to have the management. He placed in charge George M. Shine and sold to him one-half of his interest. It is claimed that this existed until January, 1909, with Shine as the active manager and that during that time the defendant and G. M. Shine appropriated to their own uses $15,000. He asks for an accounting of the partnership healings, the partnership healings, the partnership how being dissolved, and that the plaintiff be paid what is due him.

Another delightful musical was given Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles D. White of Broadway by Mies Estella Newhaus of Boston. This was the concluding one of the two musical afternoons and proved equally as enjoyable as the first. Miss Newhaus presented a varied programme of works by composers of several nationalities. Her first number was an arrangement of her own of the first movement from Schumann's a Minor Concerto. Barcarole by Nubinstein and two other Russian pieces—Arabesque by Wangell and Spinning Song by Youferow followed. Two French compositions were Debussy's Arabesque and Massenet's Fancy Music Etide in D flat major and Fantasy on the Airs of Rigolekto by Liszt concluded the programme, which was extended by the encore number, Mazurka by Chopin.
